Identifier

An identifier is a name having a few letters, numbers and special characters _ (underscore).
It should always start with a non-numeric character.
It is used to identify a variable, function, symbolic constant, class etc.
Ex : -

X2
PI
Sigma
matadd
full_name

- Python is case sensitive programming language.

  d is not equal to D

  t is not equal to T

  rahul is not equal to Rahul

  rahul is not eqaul to RAHUL